

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Randy Brown, who will be retiring from the state of South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation, after serving 25 years of service; and,

Whereas, Randy began her career with the Department of Labor and Regulation in the Labor Market Information Center as a staff assistant on October 3, 1990, gathering data for surveys, later she was promoted to economic analyst where she specialized in collecting location employer data; and,

Whereas, Randy has performed a wide variety of duties during her tenure, including data input for the Current Employment Statistics program, processing annual refiling surveys, editing Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages data, and assisting with other U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics state programs; and,

Whereas, On December 8, 2015, Randy plans to retire to spend more time her family and beloved cats, traveling, playing bridge, and caring for abandoned and/or injured animals; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this occasion:

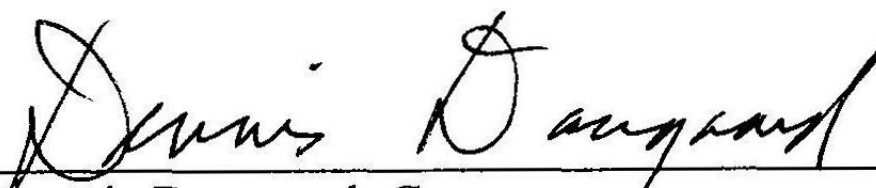

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 8, 2015, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
